26 Motors Finance Dept-KYLE Cell >

Kyle, if you could just voice my Concerns and explain to them the situation with the mark up and now the brakes it would be appreciated. I wanted 26 motors to be my new dealership/Home. No exaggeration. My plan was to not only purchase again my self... my brother is looking for a Maserati for the holiday season. That was my referral to you. Thx for anything you can do. Transparency and communication is a great new beginning.

You were not overcharged. As I explained in detail the day we met that the 74950 tier one offer was for tier one credit approvals but even they come with associated pass through costs and you and I discussed them and covered them in detail . I have cameras in my office and our entire conversation is recorded and available . As for your safety concerns.. I promised you I would discuss them on Sunday and I will. I'm not there today. We are closed tomorrow because the owners are Jewish. I will be at my desk Sunday.

The internet price was approximately $72,995. Even $74,950 is
